

Kate Watson

What she does... Kate is completing her final year of a Bachelor of Music degree at the University of Pretoria, majoring in piano performance. She is also a flautist and soprano, having been a member of the University of Pretoria Symphony Orchestra and University of Pretoria Camerata. Kate is a part-time music teacher at the Hatfield Arts Centre and Laerskool Anton van Wouw, and has achieved awards in various competitions, including the 2019 National Youth Music Competition, the 2019&2020 UNISA South African Music Scholarship Competition and the 2020 Con Grazia Online Music Talent Showcase. She has ABRSM Gr 8 qualifications in piano, flute and voice, UNISA Gr 8 qualifications in piano and flute, and Trinity Advanced Concert Certificates in piano and flute – all with distinction.

Role in String Things

Kate joined String Things as a musician in 2020 and started working as the Pretoria branch Manager in 2021. She also runs String Things Instagram account.

Why I love music...

“ I have loved performing since I was a child! I grew up watching musicals and playing my grandma’s piano. Ever since then, I have wanted to make music and learn more about music – from playing piano concertos to playing flute in orchestras and falling in love with opera. I truly believe that music is one of the most profound forms of self-expression. ” to run the Pretoria branch, and work with the musicians countrywide, to arrange gigs, so that both the client and musicians may get the best out of each unique function attended.

Kate joined String Things ...

Working for String Things

“ String Things has been a wonderful experience! Getting to work with fellow musicians to create special moments for our clients is truly fulfilling. ”

