

Morne van der Westhuyzen

Age: 22

Instrument: Piano, Organ, Percussion

- He is an organist and pianist at St. Francis of Assisi Anglican Church Waterkloof. I perform/ed as an individual musician and with chamber artists, such as the Drakensberg Old Boys Choir.
- He was the previous accompanist at Laerskool Stephanus Roos.
- He is the current accompanist at Kempton Park Highschool choir where he utilizes his abilities to compose and arrange for the choir – no matter of the occasion.
- He is a permanent chorister and accompanist for the Drakensberg Old Boys' choir association. He composes and arranges for them at any given opportunity as a permanent arranger and composer.
- He has been given the newly set opportunity to be an arranger for String Things – since 2020.
- He is current the accompanist, arranger, and composer at Laerskool Lynnwood. He has composed various pieces for the choir which have been performed for national competitions such as ATVK.

- He is a new member, arranger, recording musician, and composer for VONKK (Afr.: Voorgesette Ontwikkeling van Nuwe Klassieke Kermusiek. Eng.: Continued Development of New Classic Church Music).
- He has been tutoring 1st Year student from the University of Pretoria School of Art department since 2019. He currently tutors Music Education.
- He was part of the University of Pretoria Tuks Camerata choir. He toured with them and has accompanied them at the Alumni 50th anniversary of the choir. He was the rehearsal accompanist for the choir in 2019.
- He was the rehearsal accompanist for the World Choir Games in 2018.
- He is a partaking member of the University of Pretoria's Symphonic- Orchestra and - Windband (Percussion).
- He was a member of the Drakensberg Boys' Choir School (2013-2014) and is a partaking Alumni to the choir. He has travelled nationally and internationally with the choir.
- He is the accompanist for the University of Pretoria's School of the Arts: Departmental choir.