

Nico Viljoen

Age: 18

Instrument: Cello

- Nico Viljoen has played the cello for 7 years and has a grade 7 ABRSM cello qualification he is currently preparing for his grade 8 cello exam.
- He has toured across South Africa with various orchestras such as Simfonia Juventi, the Johannesburg youth orchestra, and has attended the Stellenbosch international chamber music festival in 2019.
- Nico had the opportunity to perform with well known artists such as Zolani Mahola, Timothy Moloi, The Drakensberg boys choir, the Zip Zap circus and has played under the baton of world renowned conductor Benjamin Zander.
- He has played professionally at many corporate events. Nico has experience in a large number of musical genres ranging from chamber music, symphony concerts, and contemporary music.

